Mangan Ernst & Rankin Wealth Management Group Recognized by Dental Practice Report

Ranked among the Best Financial Advisors for Dentists for 2011

Philadelphia, PA__ April 20, 2011__ Janney today proudly announced that Mangan, Ernst & Rankin Wealth Management Group, of the Marlton office of Janney Montgomery Scott, has been recognized by Dental Practice Report and named to the “2011 Top Financial Advisors for Dentists” list. This prestigious national award recognizes only a select group of advisors and advisor teams across the county who specialize in meeting the unique challenges facing dental practitioners, and is a testament to the team’s hard work, dedication and achievements on behalf of their clients.

This recognition comes on the heels of a successful 2010 for the group, marked by the distinction of ranking among the “Top Financial Advisors” for the greater Philadelphia area and listed in the Philadelphia Business Journal, as well as being named to the “Top Financial Advisors for Doctors” list as published in Medical Economics.

“Once again, we’re honored to be listed with an elite group of peers and recognized as a trusted and reliable source of financial advice for medical professionals,” said Clark Mangan, Vice President/Wealth Management and one of the team’s founding partners.

Honorees were selected to the list based upon client and peer references and strong recommendations from dentists. Other factors, such as credentials, educational background, noteworthy professional achievements, specific areas of expertise, and percentage of dentists clients, were also considered.

Established in 2000, The Mangan, Ernst & Rankin Wealth Management Group (MER) guides individuals, families, companies and nonprofits in making the best investment choices to achieve their own personalized investment goals. To learn more about their group, visit www.merwealth.com.
